

Sunderland Yacht Club

Cruising Programme 2011

Enjoy good sailing in company with other boats and pleasant evenings spent ashore. The Cruising programme is open to visitors from other clubs, who would be welcome to join us.

Hartlepool - Mayday Weekend 30th April 1st and 2nd May

Early Season shakedown cruise to Hartlepool we unlikely to extend to Whitby this year due to tides leaving Hartlepool, We have provisional plans for a walk through Seaton Carew on Sunday.

Seamanship Event 21st and 22nd May this is an event open to entries from other clubs.

This event is test of navigational and metrological skills as well as a test of boat speed, and should appeal to racing sailors and cruising sailors alike. Timing is a self declaration, by completing the form available in the club on the weekend of the event or by downloading the form from the website.

Cruise the Farnes - Spring Bank Holiday 28th 29th and 30th May

Cruise North, Amble Newton Farne Islands The bird life on the Farnes is stunning at this time of year

Mystery weekend - 17th Evening 18th 19th June

Weekend away, no planned destination, Tides are good for north or south, the weather will decide the destination.

22nd June 13th July long distance Cruise

To be finalised; another foray to Shetland is on the cards for Charlotte.(Crew have volunteered already) This is a fantastic cruising area and well worth the effort to sail there.

The 11th Muster - 21st August (Sunday) to 29th August (Monday)

The Northumberland Muster Cruising on the Northumberland and Scottish Coast. Possible visits, Amble, Newton, Beadnell, Farne Islands, Holy Island, Berwick, Eyemouth, St Abbs Dunbar. This can be a challenging week if the weather is unkind, and is open to well equipped boats correctly crewed.

Seamanship Event 24th and 25th September this is an event open to entries from other clubs.

This event is test of navigational and metrological skills as well as a test of boat speed, and should appeal to racing sailors and cruising sailors alike. Timing is a self declaration, by completing the form available in the club on the weekend of the event or by downloading the form from the website.

Hartlepool - 1st and 2nd October

Enjoy an end of Season Curry

Friday 14th Saturday 15th October Hartlepool

Absolutely the last cruise of the season Mast lift 16th October

All events are of course subject to the weather
Coordinating this programme is Alan Dixon (Charlotte) contactable on 0191 548 2714 Home 0775 419 2306 or cruising.syc@btconnect.com